12. TAX INFORMATION - GLOBAL TAX REPORTING REQUIREMENTS (CRS/FATCA)

Why you need to complete this section?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standard (CRS) are regulatory requirements that aim to deter tax evasion by US and other foreign taxpayers. The Australian and a number of other foreign Governments have an agreement which requires us to obtain certain information from investors, including taxation information. You may be liable to a penalty if you provide information that is false or misleading in a material particular. We may decide not to open an account without first receiving the required information. For more information, visit www.ato.gov.au.

If you are unsure of any of the answers, please contact a legal or accounting professional.

HELP

Tell me about tax residence

You can be a resident of more than one country for tax purposes. Whether you are tax resident of a particular country for tax purposes is often based on the amount of time you spend in a country and the location of your residence and/or place of work. If you pay tax or have a tax liability somewhere, you are probably a tax resident there. Dual citizenship often brings dual tax residency. It depends on the country. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency for tax purposes.

If you're unsure, ask someone who knows, usually your accountant.

- you are a Governmental entity, an international organisation, a central bank or an entity wholly owned by one of the above.
- you are exempt from income tax in your residential jurisdiction and were established and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, athletic or educational purposes and meet certain other specific criteria.

If you are unsure whether you are an active or passive NFE, please get advice.

The person or entity that appoints a nominee to act as a trustee may be the related body corporate.
